

Homework 1 corrections -

1. Why are you bringing so many suitcases / so much baggage/luggage? Who is going to carry all of them / it?
2. Let me give you 2 pieces of advice.
3. The public/crowd/audience was satisfied, and (they) clapped/applauded enthusiastically / with enthusiasm.
4. They risked their lives trying to save the child/kid.
5. The police have not arrested/apprehended the murderer yet.
6. Is it good news / Is the news good? Here is some news that will surprise you / take you by surprise.
7. My hair is starting to gre(a)y / to turn grey/gray; I am going to dye it.
8. The crowd is/are waiting for the queen to leave/exit the palace.
9. The progress he has made is very/extremely/highly encouraging.
10. Giraffes have a long neck and a small head / long necks and small heads.
11. If you ask anyone in the street what they think of the House of Lords, they would probably say/respond/answer that they don't care (about it).
12. I am alone, my family has gone/has left for a weekend by the sea / to have a weekend by the sea.
13. He is too vain a man to admit he was wrong.
14. This pig of a customs officer made me empty my two suitcases.
15. He earns/makes more than 2,000 pounds per/a month.
16. Kipling was both a novelist and a poet.
17. His/her brother, a renowned/well-known journalist, was a member of the Fabian Society.
18. I cannot stand his stupid brother.
19. These eggs cost 50 pence a dozen / for the dozen.
20. She calls her mother two or three times a week.