Raymond Chandler, The Big Sleep (1939), p. 11 :

I looked at the slips of stiffish white paper. They were promissory notes filled out in ink, dated on several dates early in the month before, September. 'On Demand I promise to pay to Arthur Gwynn Geiger or Order the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) without interest. Value Received. Carmen Sternwood.'

The written part was in a sprawling moronic hadwriting with a lot of fat curlicues and circles for dots. I mixed myself another drink and sipped it and put the exhibit aside.
